Review of meeting minutes

The minutes of the June 6, 2019 were reviewed and accepted.

FY2019 Mission and Ministry Grant Recap

The Behavioral Health grant for FY19 has been closed out and the executive summary was shared with the group. During FY17-FY19 the Coalition was able to access $80,735 in extra funding for programming. During the three grant cycle, a total of $230,975 was expended which was a 53% increase in funds from the original allocation of $150,240. A collective impact survey was conducted and 91% of collation members indicated they always or almost always have shared values and 91% of coalition members indicated they always or almost always trust one another. This is a great testament to the hard work on behalf of the coalition. It was consensus of the Coalition to continue with some type of evaluation of the coalition annually. The Coalition had a celebration at the Corning Winery with approximately 40 in attendance and the comments were good. A final report that will include 9 other Coalitions will be submitted to Mission and Ministry by August 15, 2019.
